

About Michaela:

Michaela Adeline Cozad is a lover of Christ who works as an artist and art teacher. Her prayer is that everyone who comes across her work, whether visual, written, or auditory, encounters Jesus in a personal way. Michaela has a passion for helping others discover the creative authority within them through the power of the Holy Spirit and introducing sleeping children of all backgrounds to the Father's Heart through art, words, and life. In 2021, Michaela and her husband started a traveling prophetic arts ministry: Lotus Crown Art Studio.

Michaela is the author and illustrator of Up the Ancient Pathway: A Children's Book for All Ages. A modern-day parable, this story is an allegorical narrative of our spiritual journey and our awakening to the light of our Father and Creator. Written and illustrated with wonder and whimsy, this story calls kids and adults alike to remember we are all children of the Father and know our identity and authority that rests in Him.

Michaela is open and willing to write and illustrate more as Holy Spirit leads.

"Creativity is a birthright of the spirit."

Michaela graduated with her BFA in Studio Art from the University of Central Oklahoma in 2015. In 2016, Michaela was accepted as a teaching artist on the Arts in Education Roster through the Arkansas Arts Council and worked as a middle school Fine Arts teacher from February 2018-December 2020. As Michaela was discovering her passion for inspiring creativity in others, she was also being taught by Holy Spirit to paint and create prophetically. Michaela started by painting what she saw in prayer and the Word as private service to the Lord. She began to be invited as a guest artist to paint prophetically at conferences through the Arkansas Awakening organization.

The Lord also started to merge her love for teaching and prophetic art by hosting prophetic art classes for her church. In 2021 the Lord asked Michaela to commit fully to the prophetic arts ministry and launch Lotus Crown Art Studio. She also had the honor of being ordained as a minister of the Gospel through her church, Impact Church of North Little Rock. Michaela's heart is to reach all cultural groups seeking spiritual realities and point them to the truth and light of Jesus through art, music, and stories.

Now living and working out of Bentonville, Arkansas, Michaela, and her husband share this love with the people of Northwest Arkansas and wherever else the Lord takes them.

Book Overview

All Prism ever wanted was to belong. An outsider in her sleepy little town, it appeared that she was always destined to be different and alone. Until one day, she makes a friend at the end of a mysterious path who promises the discovery of a great treasure and truth. Equipped with a magic mirror and a pure heart, Prism dares to discover whose she really is, where she really belongs, and who she's really been destined to be.

Take the journey of self-discovery with Prism, and allow the Father to whisper truth and light into your heart. May Prism's journey inspire you to dare to awaken, dare to remember, and dare to open your heart to the many mysteries that are Up the Ancient Pathway.

"All my children are Diamonds. They were made to carry my light and let it shine through them so that the color of their calling will shine into the valley."

Book Excerpt

"One more thing," said the Father before He released her. "Let me reveal one more mystery to you. You are always welcome to walk the ancient path, Prism, no matter where you go. For there are many other valleys in my Kingdom that need awakening, just like Slumber. But know this, the ancient path, the Spirit Pool, is within you. You carry the gateway to Celestia inside you, just as you carry My Son and Spirit within you."
